Certificate of Participation in The Royal Institution Christmas Juvenile Lectures

Through the Looking Glass

This is to certify that the holder of this certificate attended and participated in the above lectures which took place in Kyoto and Tokyo in July / August of 1993.

The lectures incorporated experiments demonstrated at The Royal Institution of Great Britain and were delivered by Professor Charles Stirling of Sheffield University being the fourth series of Christmas Juvenile Lectures to be held in Japan in the long history of the Royal Institution.

This certificate was issued to the holder in commemoration of "Through the Looking Glass" by the lecturer who places great faith in the holder's future scientific career.
